Professor Newman

Shawn Newman is a graduate of Notre Dame Law School and has been practicing law for 30 years. He has worked as an assistant attorney general, senate staff counsel, public defender, college and university general counsel.

His private practice focuses on consumer and constitutional rights. He is admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court, 9th and 5th Circuit Courts of Appeals, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, U.S. District Courts for Western and Eastern Washington and the Washington State Supreme Court. He has argued and won cases before the Washington Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Shawn is also an adjunct professor at Saint Martin's University where he teaches legal studies, business law and commercial law. He also teaches legal research in the paralegal program at South Puget Sound Community College.

Shawn lives in Olympia with his wife Marianne and their Labrador rescue dog Bernie and office cats, Frostie and Kiekie. He enjoys playing the ukulele and plays locally in a ukulele trio called The Westside Uku--Hooligans (a tip of the hat to Hawaii and his Irish dual-- citizenship).
